The sun and elements can really take a toll on the look of your dash over the years. And for those looking to add a digital dash to their truck, the inserts for the RacePak IQ3 and Holley EFI, make it easy to add high performance digital instrumentation to their truck. Our inserts are made from vacuum formed ABS that is precision manufactured to be a direct fit in to the console. We use only high quality ABS material, which makes a big difference inside your ride. We are very excited to be able to bring these three new dashes to the racing, restomod and protouring truck motorsport markets. Available in matte black, brushed aluminum and carbon fiber, the new 6-gauge and digital dash inserts will fit right in where the stock cluster went using stock fasteners. Easily installed, only commonly available tools are needed, and the swap can be performed by competent do-it-yourselfers in an afternoon. Manufactured in Carson City, Nevada, Classic Dash custom panels can help you find a dash that fits your needs while selecting the finish and gauges that fit your style. Custom panels are available in several different finishes including matte black, brushed aluminum, and carbon fiber. Available without gauges or in complete packages, everything needed for installation sending units, wiring kits, accessories, etc. Unfortunately, at this time, we do not manufacture a dash panel for a Chevy Truck. We may start production on this dash panel in the future but, as of today, there are no immediate plans to start production. We apologize for this inconvenience. Would you be able to help?
